If I had told you we would be shooting in snow on the Easter weekend, you would have been looking for a padded cell and a straight jacket. Well, tie me up and lock the door. Snow fell for about 2 hours during the morning hours while the temperature hovered around the mid-40's.

Justin Utley led off with his winning standing score of 197-6x and followed up with the only double clean at 300. Stacy Wood beat the field in the sitting match with a 199-8x and Randy Nash completed the individual matches by winning the 600 yard match with 196-7x.

Kayte Foster won the combined SS-MK-Unc going away (she would have won Expert class) with her 748-13x in her third match. Dad (Gregg) is going to have to pick it up or get used to it. All kidding aside, Kayte has a great future as she develops her shooting skills. Fellow junior, Jacob Wood was the Expert class winner firing a 732-12x. The Master class was won by Randy Nash with his 775-23x. The match winner with 781-28x was Rick Crawford (Justin opened the door with a cross fired X at 600).

The regional is filled up and a standby list is growing. If you have to withdraw, let me know so we can notify the standby shooters and keep the match filled up. Also, there are 41 non-distinguished shooters for the LEG match, so there is room for at least 5 more to get us to 5 LEGS. Don't forget the pistol LEG, be cannon fodder if nothing else. Maybe someone will return the favor in the future.
