With the January matches cancelled due to record cold, everyone was itching to get back onto the firing line. Josh Blackstone joined us for his first match with a borrowed Garand and finished with 414, a pretty good start.

Justin Utley got out of the gate quickly by firing a 98-4x offhand and 100-6x sitting and then it was coasting to the winning score of 495-20. Jon Rhynard was the HM class winner with 485-15x, Tony Miller won the Master class with 481-15, Jim Booker won the Expert class with 460-7x and Clayton Brakeville won the combined SS/MK class with 455-7x.

The shooting season will be in full swing as Spring approaches. It's time to tune up your equipment and your mental game. There is a point when the physical portion is mastered and the final hurdle is the mental part. See yourself shooting good shots, relive the good shots, feel that good shots are what you do and allow yourself to excel.

Until next time, shoot 10s.
