The normal first weekend matches were rescheduled due to snow and ice (and it was really cold) so we move them back a week and hit the jackpot on the weather. Saturday came cold and clear before warming up to a balmy 65 degrees.

Justin Utley shooting his AR match rifle almost made a clean sweep of the individual matches beginning with his off hand 97-2x, 100-4x prone rapid fire and aggregate of 495-17. Robert Langham won the sitting match, 100-6x, firing a AR match rifle. Jon Rhynard was the winner of the 600 yard slow fire match with 198-7x. Tony Miller was first Master with 483-9x, junior Joshua Schlaudt was first Expert with 476-6 and junior Emily Hogg was the Sharpshooter class winner with 454-5x.

Coming events include our February matches on 2/5-6 followed by the TSRA Mid-range championship at Camp Swift on 2/25-27, TSRA High Power Rifle championship on 4/8-10, the Palo Alto (Donaldsonville, LA) regional on 4/15-17.

The POGC Regional will be May 13-15 since the first weekend is Mother's Day—don't mess with Momma. We had a great year and the expectation for the coming year is for even greater things to come.

Until next time, shoot 10s
